

CHANG ASKS FOR CONGER

Wants the American Envoy
To Be One of the Commission.

TO NEGOTIATE PEACE.

Allied Forces Are Bombarding
the Inner Tarter City of Pekin.

REPORT FROM ADMIRAL REMEY

Washington, Aug. 20.—[Special Telegram]—Gen. Chaffee cables today that the bombardment of the inner city of Pekin still continues. The empress is believed to be a prisoner.

Washington, Aug. 20.—[Special Telegram]—Minister Wu this morning transmitted to the state department a cablegram from Li Hung Chang asking this government to appoint a commission to negotiate with him for peace and for the settlement of the troubles in China. Li suggests that Conger, who he says is familiar with the situation, be appointed.

Secretary Adee said the communication from Li won't be made public. It was referred to the president and will probably be considered in the cabinet tomorrow. Wu has no doubt that the Emperor and Empress dowager have left Pekin. He places implicit reliance in Chang's dispatch of yesterday declaring that the court had gone to Hsianfu.

Waldersee Starts For China.
Berlin, Aug. 20.—[Special Cablegram]—Field Marshal Waldersee started for the East today accompanied by his staff. There was a brilliant gathering at the depot.

Details from Pekin by Remy

This is the fighting force alone, and does not include hospital corps, signal corps, and teamsters, of which there is a large number.

AN INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS
Plan Proposed by McKinley to Settle Chinese Question.

Washington, D. C., August 20.—As a solution of the Chinese problem this government will propose an international Congress to go to China clothed with power to adjust the present difficulties and make China a safe place for foreigners in the future.

President McKinley has had this scheme under consideration for some time, and the result will undoubtedly be a commission of the character indicated, to consist of one or more representatives of each nation interested in the Chinese muddle.

The proposition has not yet been made to the powers, but it will be in a short time, as President McKinley is a firm believer in the wisdom of having men on the spot to deal with situations.

The question with which the commission will have to deal will be the restoration of order throughout the empire; the fixing of indemnity for the loss of life and property of foreigners in China; the punishment of those responsible for the present disorders; a solution of the difficulties which will bring about permanent safety and peace to China; to preserve Chinese territorial and administrative entity; to protect all rights guaranteed to friendly powers by treaty, and international law, and safeguard to the world the principle of equal and impartial trade with all parts of the Chinese empire.

ALLIES ARE SHELLING PEKIN.

Inner City Is Being Bombarded By the Foreign Troops.

London, Aug. 20.—Rear Admiral Bruce cables the Admiralty from Chefoo, August 19, as follows:
"Am informed on the authority of the Japanese that street fighting still continues in Pekin, part of which is on fire."

"Yang Sa (?) prevented the Empress from leaving and a last stand is now being made in the inner city, which is surrounded by the allies and being bombarded."

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20.—The Navy department has received the following cablegram:
"Chefoo.—Taku, Aug. 18.—Bureau of Navigation, Washington: Telegraph line to Pekin interrupted."

"Information from Japanese sources says the Empress Dowager is detained by Prince Yungde in the inner city, which is being bombarded by the allies. "Chaffee reports having entered the legation grounds on the evening of the 14th. Eight wounded during the day's fight. Otherwise all well."

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20.—The war department has received the following dispatch:
"Chefoo, Aug. 10.—Pekin, Aug. 15. We entered the legation grounds at 5 o'clock last night with the Fourteenth and light battery. Eight wounded during day's fighting. Otherwise all well."

"Chaffee."

Rome, Aug. 20.—9 dispatch from Taku, via Chefoo, Aug. 18, says:
"Fighting continues in the streets of Pekin, and the allies have bombarded the point that is still resisting. Prince Yung prevented the departure of the Empress Dowager."

Brussels, Aug. 20.—The Belgian foreign office has received the following from Tien Tsin, via Chefoo and Shanghai, Aug. 18:
"M. Ketels, Belgian Vice Consul, confirms the report of the bombardment and the capture of New Chwang by the Russians."

HOW TUNG CHOW WAS TAKEN.

Gates Were Blown Open and Chinese Defenders Fled.

Tung-Chow, Aug. 20.—The Japanese entered Tung-Chow, blowing open the gates. Where the heaviest opposition was expected none was offered.

The Chinese are reported retreating to Pekin and deserting wholesale. The allies are camping today about the walled city of Tung-Chow, after seven miles of marching under a terrible sun. Many of the Americans and British are prostrated.

HEAR FROM MISSIONARIES.

Several Who Were Believed Lost Are Safe in Japan.

San Francisco, Aug. 20.—News has been received here in a letter from the Orient that the Misses Genevieve and Minnie Oviatt, two San Francisco women, who went to China as missionaries and were located at Wu Hu, have succeeded in making their escape to Japan.

The letter also stated that Dr. and Mrs. Borland, who were stationed upon the river some 200 miles from Wu Hu, are also safe, and at present in Nagasaki, Japan.

New Chwang Again Attacked.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 20.—Advices here are to the effect that Admiral Alexieff has returned to Port Arthur. The Manchourians in the Amur and Assur districts have been tranquilized and are resuming farming.

New Chwang was again attacked on Aug. 13, but the Russians repulsed 2,000 Chinese, inflicting heavy loss, although they also suffered severely.

Close Call for 800 Lives.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 21.—The passenger train that left Atlantic City at 10 o'clock on the Pennsylvania road struck a broken switch at the end of a drawbridge, two miles this side of that place, and several coaches were derailed. The train consisted of eleven coaches, two parlor cars, and a baggage car. There were about 800 passengers aboard. So far as can be learned no one was injured.

BOERS DEFEATED AT BUFFELSHOEK

GENERAL CARRINGTON HOLDS
THE BURGHERS IN CHECK.

Baden-Powell and Dewet Exchange Descriptive Messages—The Latter Has Gone With the Former Following—Pagets Brigade Have Occupied Waleval's Boer Stronghold.

London, Aug. 20.—[Special Cablegram]—Gen. Roberts reports that Gen. Carrington met and defeated a strong Boer force at Buffelshoek on Aug. 16, Commander Schwartz being severely wounded. The English losses were Captain Hanvey and two men killed and nine wounded.

The dispatch confirms the press reports that Baden-Powell and Dewet, the Boer commander who slipped through the British lines with his men, exchanged descriptive messages. Dewet has gone north, Powell following.

Paget's brigade fought the enemy and occupied Waterval where the Boers kept prisoners. Five of the yeoman were wounded.

CALEB POWERS IS FOUND GUILTY

Jury Fixes the Penalty at Life Imprisonment—Charge Was Accessory to Murder of Goebel.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 20.—Ex-Secretary of State Caleb Powers, charged with being accessory before the fact to the murder of William Goebel, was found guilty Saturday afternoon. His punishment was fixed by the jury at imprisonment for life. The jury was out fifty-three minutes. The vote in favor of a life sentence was unanimous.

When the jury retired the belief was general that the jury would fail to agree and in this opinion the defendant himself was firmly convinced. When the verdict of guilty was returned Powers for the first time betrayed his feelings. He was sitting near the door of the jury room when the twelve men filed into the court room.

"Have you made a verdict, gentlemen?" inquired the court.

"We have," the jurors assented, and at the same time Mr. Stone, the foreman passed the verdict up to the clerk who read it aloud. Powers, always pale, grew ghastly as the verdict was read, and his face betokened great mental anguish. This was only for a few seconds, however, and then somewhat regaining his composure, he turned to the Misses Dangerfield, who had been in conversation with him and said: "I was not expecting that. The verdict is unjust."

There was no sort of demonstration following the verdict and the vast crowd filed out of the court house almost in silence.

Powers will move for a new trial, and, failing in that will take an appeal.

Yontsey Is on Trial

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 20.—[Special Telegram]—The trial of Henry Yontsey for complicity in the Goebel murder, began this morning. Yontsey appeared very pale. A conference of lawyers for the defense occupied most of the day.

STRICKEN DOWN IN A PARADE.

Milwaukee Man Falls From His Horse and Is Fatally Hurt.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 20.—George Meyer, a prominent member of German Singing societies, was overcome by heat yesterday afternoon. He was acting as marshal of the parade of Sons of Hermann, which had a picnic at Schlitz park. He fell from his horse and fractured his skull on the asphalt pavement. He was taken to his home, 1068 Eighth street, and will probably die.

BOMRICH IS IN THE LEAD

Wisconsin Democrats Seem Likely to Nominate the Racial Man

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 20.—The returns from the democratic conventions held Saturday indicate that Louis G. Bomrich of this city is the choice for candidate for governor. It is probable that he will be nominated at the state convention which will be held here next Wednesday. James W. Murphy, who is a candidate for chairman of the state central committee, was given a setback by the Rose machine in the caucuses held here.

Attended Convention in 1838.

Former Governor William Marvin of Florida, now a resident of New York state, has sent his portrait to Tallahassee, where it is now displayed in the executive chamber. He is 82 years old. He writes to Governor Bloxham of Florida: "I am the sole survivor of the sixty or seventy delegates that composed the first constitutional convention of Florida, held at St. Joseph in 1838."

STATE LIBRARY IS BEING MOVED TODAY

WORK WAS BEGUN THIS MORNING AT MADISON.

Handsome New Building Is Ready For Books—Library Contains 210,000 Books and Pamphlets and the Greatest Care Must Be Taken in Removing Them.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 20.—This morning began the work of moving the famous Wisconsin Historical Library from its present quarters in the State capital to the new $400,000 building built for the library and the State university library by the state. The library contains 210,000 books and pamphlets, and its removal has been planned for with great care. The number of books is so great that the smallest slip in their handling would involve great confusion, and the practical loss of the book for years. Elaborate preparations have been made by Librarian I. S. Bradley and Secretary R. G. Thwaites of the Historical society for moving the books without getting them mixed.

Experience has taught the managers of the library that when a book is misplaced it is practically lost, sometimes for years, so great is the library, and the problem of the moving is to avoid getting the volumes mixed.

Fifty Tons of Newspapers

In addition to the 210,000 books and pamphlets, the library contains fifty tons of newspapers, which are at present stored in the basement of the capitol. These alone will make a big lot of work to move. It is estimated that several weeks will be required for the moving, but the library will be ready for use when the university opens Sept. 26. The new library building will be dedicated Oct. 19, when Charles Francis Adams of Boston, president of the Massachusetts Historical society, will make the dedicatory address.

The big library to be moved is one of the leading historical libraries in the United States, and contains a multitude of priceless books, which will be safely housed in the new fireproof building. Many of these books are very old and very rare, and lovers of their kind have grieved for years because they, together with the magnificent library, were exposed to danger of destruction by fire. When it is safely in the new building, one of the finest libraries in America will be safe for future generations.

Growth of the Library

This library, which has grown to such proportions, was begun about 1850 with a collection of fifty books and pamphlets. It was housed then in the basement of the old First Baptist church, the first public edifice of its kind in Madison. In later years the library came to have its home in the capitol.

PLACES BAN ON CIGARETTES

Rock Island Road Forbids Their Use by Its Employees

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 20.—The Rock Island Railroad company has followed the example of the Union Pacific in placing a ban on cigarettes. Notice has been served on the employees of the company in the Armourdale, (Kas.) yards that those who are addicted to the use of cigarettes must give them up or lose their position.

RAILROAD TRAIN JUMPED THE TRACK

Indefinite Report of an Accident from Camden, N. J.—Train Carried 1,000 Passengers.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 20.—The 10 o'clock train leaving here for Camden is reported to have met with an accident this morning. A dispatch received here says it jumped the track, but no details as to the extent of the damage are obtainable. The train carried 1,000 passengers, and a serious disaster is feared. The derailling happened at the same spot where a train was wrecked on Friday night. The wires are not working well, and it may be some hours before definite information can be secured.

DOLLIVER WILL BE NAMED SENATOR

Des Moines, Aug. 20.—It may be said upon the highest authority that Jonathan Prentiss Dolliver, the brilliant lawyer and congressman who during the twelve years he has represented the tenth Iowa district has risen to the distinction of being known as the orator of the house, will succeed the late John Henry Gear as United States senator. This honor, it is stated, will be given him through appointment by Governor Shaw, but after appointment there is no reason, able doubt that when the legislature meets in 1902 he will be elected for the full term of six years, which will begin March 4 next.

Governor Shaw has been influenced in his leaning towards Mr. Dolliver by the earnestness of the contention between the Cummins and Gear factions and the irreconcilable differences that fight has developed. It is expected the appointment will be announced in two or three days.

Miss Nettie Leary, is spending her vacation with relatives at Darlington.

GEORGIA MOB KILLS NEGRO

Take Him From Jail and Riddle Him With Bullets.

Doerun, Ga., Aug. 20.—A mob entered the jail Friday night and took Bill Cater, colored, out and riddled him with bullets. Cater was charged with attempted assault on a white woman. As soon as captured Cater confessed.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 20.—Governor Candler received a telegram from Sheriff Brewer of Liberty county last night saying that the negroes in that locality who had been giving considerable trouble during the last few days, had now dispersed and that there was no longer any need of the Liberty guards, a cavalry troop, called out yesterday, remaining on the scene, as all trouble had apparently ended.

The citizens who had armed themselves have returned to their homes and order has been restored. Some further arrests may yet be made.

PROTECT M'KINLEY FROM ASSASSINS

Special Precautions Will be Taken During the G. A. R. Encampment at Chicago Next Week.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—[Special Telegram]—It is rumored in police circles that an appeal has been made to the authorities for extraordinary precautions against any attempts to assassinate McKinley during the Grand Army encampment. Fifty detectives have been ordered in from outlying stations to pay special attention to that feature of police work.

CYCLONE SWEEP OVER SHEBOYGAN

Severe Storms Reported Over the Northern Part of Wisconsin—Factory Reported Blown Down.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 20, 3 p. m.—[Special Telegram]—Very severe storms are reported through the northern part of the state. Reports have just been received of a cyclone at Sheboygan. It is reported that the Crocker Chair Co. factory was blown down and several injured, but no further particulars are known at this time. Wires are down between Green Bay and Appleton.

CIRCULAR LETTER TO G. A. R. VETERANS

Instructions as to the Part the Badger Boys Will Take in the Parade.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 20.—Department Commander James has issued a circular of information for Wisconsin veterans who will attend the G. A. R. encampment at Chicago. The circular says: "The Department of Wisconsin will form in column and be ready to move at 9:30 a. m. on Michigan avenue, north of Randolph street, the right resting on columns of twelve files front facing in the direction in which the column will march."

"Posts will form in column according to seniority of date of charter. This formation will only be given to posts who maintain their organization and have two or more files. Any post striving to win the banner is expected to be uniform in some manner and march with the flag and banner of their post. "It is earnestly requested of the comrades of this department that they will be in line by the time set, as the column moves at the hour given and if not ready will be passed by and will have to take their place in the rear of the entire parade. D. G. JAMES."

CHIEF GERONIMO WILL WED

Old Indian Warrior Engaged to Marry a Wealthy Girl

Guthrie, O. T., Aug. 20.—Geronimo, the noted Indian chief, recently reported to have become insane, is, it is now said, about to marry a youthful girl with a bank account of $40,000. The old warrior is declared to be in his usual health.

TEXT BOOK BY REPUBLICANS

Political Topics Which are Discussed in Campaign Document.

New York, Aug. 20.—The republican campaign text book, issued at the beginning of each presidential campaign by the national committee, has been completed and sample copies have arrived at national headquarters. The topics discussed in the book are national prosperity and its effect on the business elements, the manufacturers, the farmers, and the workingmen; the currency question, the subject of trusts, conditions in Cuba, Porto Rico, and the Philippines. The latter part of the book is devoted to a defense of the subject of so called imperialism.

Fatal Affray in Missouri

Farley, Mo., Aug. 20.—[Special Telegram]—"Doc" Herrington shot and killed the widow Rollins and James Wallace. Herrington escaped and Sheriff Dillingham started to arrest him. A fight ensued and an officer was killed. Herrington tried to get away, but was killed by one of the crowd in pursuit.

THEFT OF $25,000 FROM EXPRESS CAR

UNKNOWN ROBBERS SECURE
RICH PRIZE FROM ADAMS CO.

Billed to An Iowa Bank—Commercial National of Chicago the Sender; Its Cashier Says an Envelope Was Rifled—The Officials Are On the Hunt.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—An express package containing $25,000 in currency was stolen from a safe in an Adams Express car on Saturday night some distance this side of Burlington, Ia. The car from which the money was taken was a part of a Chicago, Burlington & Quincy train, west bound.

The package of money was forwarded from the Commercial National Bank of Chicago, and was billed to one of the large banking institutions of Burlington.

Details of Robbery Lacking.

Details of the manner of the theft are wanting, but it is understood that the first knowledge the express authorities had of it was when the package was delivered with seal broken and contents gone.

Every effort was made to keep the big theft a secret, and the Burlington agent of the Adams Express company, F. A. Penny, started on the first train for Chicago, being called thither by the general officials of the company. Detectives were also set at work both from this terminus of the road and out of Burlington. Thus far, it is understood, they have made no progress towards hunting down the robber. The Burlington road's secret service men are at work on the case also.

Bank Official Confirms Theft

In Chicago a bare confirmation of the theft was all that could be secured. Cashier Joseph T. Talbot of the Commercial National bank was seen at his residence in the Hotel Metropole. He said:

"There has been a theft of an express package, but for all details I must refer you to the Adams Express authorities."

Refuses to Discuss Robbery

Manager William H. Damsel was at the express offices through the afternoon and a part of the evening, reaching his home in Evanston at 10:40 p. m. He refused to make any statement. It is known that he sent a number of men to Burlington yesterday to inquire into the case.

Burlington Police Notified

From the Central Police Station of Burlington this statement was secured last night:

"There has been a robbery of an express package, billed to a Burlington bank from Chicago. The amount taken is understood to be $25,000. The envelope containing the money was not stolen. When it was delivered, however, it was found to contain a pile of blank sheets of paper, neatly folded up."

TO BE HEAD OF GRAND ARMY.

Maj. Leo Rasseur of St. Louis Has the Field to Himself.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 20.—Maj. Leo Rasseur of St. Louis will be elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army at the national encampment next week. The other candidates for the place have one after the another withdrawn from the race and yesterday the only one in the field was the St. Louis man, who is now a judge on the bench. Some of their friends of Gen. John C. Black, past commander of the Department of Illinois, had cherished a hope that he might be chosen but Gen. Black discouraged all agitation in his favor, as his law practice is absorbing all his time.

HOT WAVE AT OTHER POINTS

Mercury At Burlington, Iowa, Reaches the 101 Degree Mark.

Burlington, Iowa, Aug. 20.—The mercury yesterday marked 101 degrees with almost no air stirring. One death and two prostrations are reported.

Increases St. Paul's Death Rate.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 20.—St. Paul is experiencing another installment of extremely hot weather which gives promise of exceeding in violence that of the earlier part of August. Yesterday the official thermometer registered 95 degrees, and today the maximum was but one degree higher. The heat has greatly increased the death rate, the mortality being chiefly among infants.

Heat Fails to Stop Revivals.

Moscow, Ill., Aug. 20.—With the thermometer at 103 three revival meetings were in progress at the churches here yesterday and ninety persons united with the Methodist church.

Broom-Corn Cutters Stop Work.

Charleston, Ill., Aug. 20.—Reports from many broom-corn growers of this section saw that the heat was so excessive yesterday as to cause a great number of prostrations, and work was suspended in many fields. The tangled condition of the brush, makes slow heavy work for the cutters.

Freezing Point of Sea Water.

Water containing salts in solution has a lower point of congelation than pure water. Sea water is more or less salt in localities, but in general it freezes at about 28 degrees. If water be saturated with sea salt, the freezing point sinks to 4 degrees below zero. In freezing, the pure water floats as ice and the salt separates.

MILITARY EVENT AT THE STATE FAIR

FIRST INFANTRY, BATTERY A AND THE LIGHT HORSE.

Soldiers of the State to Give Prize Drills, Guard Mount, Dress Parade And Inspection—Camp Life and All Its Interesting Features Put Before The People.

Milwaukee, Aug. 20.—A generation has grown from babyhood to manhood since the stirring times of '61-'65, during which days Wisconsin sent over 100,000 of her best blood to fight in defense of the union, thousands of whom lie in southern graves, and other thousands have passed beyond, or are frost-bitten by age, and awaiting "taps."

Not since those never-to-be-forgotten days have the citizens of Wisconsin had such an opportunity to witness the pomp and circumstance of their state military, as will be presented on Military day, Wednesday, Sept. 12, at the grounds of the state fair.

Most elaborate preparations have been made to have the three arms of the service shown in a most favorable manner. On that day the First Infantry, ten companies strong, the Light Horse Squadron and Battery A will go into camp at the state fair grounds in full force.

Four companies of the Infantry, the squadron and battery are Milwaukee organization. The members of the battery and squadron own their own horses and are among the best known of the members of the best circles of society in the city. The four Infantry companies A, D, E and F of Milwaukee, respectively commanded by Captains Tucker, Wild, Lewis and McDowell are favorably known to many of the citizens of the state, who have seen them at Camp Douglas.

The six companies of the regiment from abroad in the state are from the cities of Oconomowoc, Portage, Madison, Beloit, Janesville and Ft. Atkinson, and are composed of the cream of the youth of their respective towns.

The space allotted for the encampment by the management of the Agricultural society, is near the center of the grounds, and was chosen that the thousands of visitors could witness the guard mounts, dress parades, prize drills and inspections, which will be carried out as fully as though the troops were in the field of war.

Adjutant Howard Green, of the First Infantry, has been placed in charge of all arrangements of the encampment. He has the assurance of all the officers of the companies, which will participate that there will be a full complement of officers, and men in attendance, who are enthusiastic at their prospective visit.

The C. M. & St. P. and C. & N. W., and Wisconsin Central railroads will charge but one cent a mile for all soldiers in uniform. The expense of transportation, subsistence and all other expenses of the encampment will be borne by the State Board of Agriculture.

It is expected that the encampment alone will bring 5,000 followers and sight-seers, as special excursions will be run in connection with the coming of the companies from outside cities.

Captain Greene has arranged with the Adj. General to furnish the equipment for the encampment from the stores of the state, at Camp Douglas.

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended, and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering. Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For sale by Smith's Pharmacy, next to postoffice; Kodak agents.

Cleanest in America.

The Lackawanna Railroad is the cleanest railroad in America. Even though it cared little for the comfort of its passengers, which it does, it probably would burn hard coal, for the reason that it owns the most extensive anthracite coal mines in Pennsylvania, and it is cheaper for it to burn hard coal, which makes no smoke, than soft. At any rate, there is no smoke from its locomotives. It is built for the most part through the mountains where rock is the material easiest of access, and its road bed for that reason is rock ballasted. There is therefore, no dust. These two things are of unusual interest to the traveler by the line, for the reason that on no other road in the United States is there stronger incentive to keep one's eyes upon the passing scene. It is said of this line truthfully that every mile is picturesque. It traverses the agricultural region of Western New York, the valley region of Central New York, the mountain region of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and every mile offers a view that is beautiful, interesting and entrancing. In point of comfort its passengers are particularly fortunate, for, in addition to there being no smoke or dust, the cars are roomy and scrupulously clean. Sleeping cars, parlor cars and dining cars offer all the conveniences and comforts of modern travel.

If the Baby Is Cutting Teeth

Be sure and use the old and well tried remedy Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

GERMANS MEET AT AKRON, O.

Fifteenth Annual Convention of the North American Kriegerbund.

Akron, O., Aug. 20.—The fifteenth annual convention of the North American Kriegerbund opened today with an attendance of 15,000 at the picnic. Today a parade by uniformed organizations from this city, Allegheny, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Moeillon, Columbus, Chicago and Toledo was held. Captain Herman Werner, chief marshal, and Mayor Young delivered addresses of welcome and P. E. Werner will also deliver an address. The convention will last four days. President Moritz Cechlar of St. Louis is here with his staff. The city is decorated with American and German flags.

BIG WISCONSIN WINDSTORM.

Lightning Comes With It and Does Some Damage to Resorts.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 20.—A furious storm of wind passed both north and south of here yesterday afternoon. South of here the Chicago and Milwaukee telegraph lines were down. White fish Bay resort was struck by lightning. A north Milwaukee electric car was struck by lightning, and two passengers had their clothes badly burned, though they escaped serious injury.

UPON AN ERA OF NEW PROSPERITY

PYTHIANS WILL GATHER AT DETROIT NEXT WEEK.

Ogden H. Fethers Stands For A "Non-Political" Conduct of Affairs And His Election as Supreme Chancellor Commander Will Be A Vast Benefit To the Order.

Detroit, Aug. 20.—Knights of Pythias of the United States take possession of this city next week. Their annual convention meets here on the same dates that the Grand army of the republic holds forth in Chicago. The Pythian conventions scheduled are:

Aug. 27 to Sept. 1: Biennial session of the Supreme Lodge of the United States, encampment of the Uniform Rank, convention of the Supreme Temple of Rathbone Sisters, convention of the Imperial Palace of the D. O. K. I., session of the Grand Keepers of Records and Seal, meeting of the National Pythian Association.

Fethers for Supreme Chancellor.

This is the twenty-first biennial convention of the Supreme lodge of the order, and will be of particular importance because of the strenuous effort being made to elect a broad-gauged western man supreme chancellor in place of the present incumbent, Thomas C. Sample of Allegheny City. The leading candidate for the succession is Ogden H. Fethers, of Janesville, Wis., now supreme vice chancellor.

Mr. Fethers was one of Wisconsin's commissioners to the world's fair and has been a conspicuous worker for what has come to be known in Pythian circles as "non-political" conduct of the affairs of the order. The Illinois delegates to the convention are strongly in his favor, and if he is elected as seems probable, it is promised that Pythianism shall start out upon a new era of prosperity.

Grand Nocturnal Fugue

The Knights of the Uniformed Rank are to have a camp on both sides of Grand boulevard, a few hundred feet from the Detroit river. The bridge leading to Belle Isle is but a block from the camp, and the park will be at the disposal of the visitors. The city will open wide its gates to D. O. K. K., and Mecca Temple is to care for the nomads. On Wednesday evening, Aug. 29, an illuminated pageant has been arranged for the public, after which there will be a session of Mecca Temple, when Mokanna and his band will escort 100 tyros across the burning sands.

The Knights of Pythias parade will take place on the afternoon of Aug. 28, with Major General Carrahan commanding. Prize drills will follow, with a first prize of $1,500 for the company of the uniform rank most proficient in drill. The total of prizes offered is the largest ever given at any biennial meeting.

HUNTING SEASON TO OPEN SEPT. 2.

The hunting season in this state will open Sept. 2 and already a number of the sportsmen are preparing themselves for the chase. County Clerk Starr, who issues the licenses required of all sportsmen who hunt or ship game in Wisconsin, has received a number of applications and has begun the issuing of the licenses for this year.

The cost of a license is $1 and 25 cents additional for a notary's fee. Non-residents are required to pay a license fee of $25 to hunt all game or of $10 to hunt all game except deer. Following is a statement of the times during which protected game may be hunted.

Deer, from Nov. 1 to Nov. 20.

Woodcock, partridge, pheasant, prairie chicken, plover or snipe or quail of any variety, Sept. 1 to Dec. 1.

Wild duck and aquatic fowl, except geese, Sept. 1 to Jan. 1.

Wild geese, Sept. 1 to May 1.

The close season for trout on the inland waters will begin Sept. 1.

SOUTH CLINTON.

South Clinton, Aug. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dresser were here last week. Our people were well represented at Clinton's carnival both on last Wednesday and Friday, in spite of the rain. Mrs. W. E. Dresser and three of her children are camping at Delavan Lake. Miss Mira Crockett has been visiting here. E. S. Patch has been enjoying a week's outing at Delavan Lake. Emma and Clarence Smith went lakeward Friday morning. E. L. Benedict has been at the lake for a few days, with his family, who are camping at the Delavan assembly. F. J. Marston has been here for a day or so. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dresser attended the funeral of Will Chant at Turtle Center, Tuesday.

SOUTH TURTLE.

South Turtle, Aug. 20.—Threshing which is well under way has been at a standstill because of the rain. Many of our people want carnival ward both Wednesday and Friday. An abundance of rain these days. Josephine Blazer came out from Beloit and is spending her vacation at the parental home. The Sabbath School in the Murray district is doing good work.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases that the army had to deal with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Green Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by Smith's Pharmacy, next to P. O., Kodak agents.

CROWNED HEADS IN FEAR.

Possible Attacks Upon Monarchs by Anarchists.

London, Aug. 20.—Anarchists hereafter must walk with wary footsteps when trying to approach the presence of titled Europeans, for by common consent of the European powers stringent measures are now being taken to prevent a repetition of the Humbert tragedy.

Under the new system notable reds in their respective countries are to be kept constantly under the strictest police surveillance ever known.

The guards of detectives around royal persons have been doubled. When one of the titled persons travels abroad the territory to be traversed will be patrolled in advance by detectives intimately acquainted with the anarchists of the neighborhood.

Fourteen detectives arrived in Hamburg a week before the Prince of Wales was expected. On his arrival he was accompanied by six special service men from Scotland Yard.

Queen Victoria is more carefully guarded than ever before. Punishment is to be meted out to the guards of Emperor William of Germany in case of any accident to him.

RESENTS INSULT TO FLAG.

Yonkers Alderman Whips Party of Canadians.

Yonkers, N. Y., Aug. 20.—An insult to America and the American flag was promptly resented at Moshoka Lake, Canada, by Alderman John H. Southwick of Yonkers and Miss Harriet Little of Monroe, a suburb of Detroit, Mich. At Fort Carling several Canadians and Americans were in a group, among them being Miss Little, Alderman Southwick and Charles Stephens, a Cincinnati lawyer. The Canadians, who outnumbered the Americans, were flaunting the British flag in the faces of the Americans and commenting in various ways on the relative values of the two flags, always to the detriment of the American. Miss Little had a little silk American flag. She attached it to a cane and waved it in the faces of the Canadians. This angered them and one seized her and tore the flag away from her, not, however, until he had bitten her hand. Alderman Southwick came to Miss Little's rescue and beat off her assailant and sent the whole crowd of them flying from his blows.

Probable Peril of Prelate.

Palermo, Aug. 20.—A man who was lurking suspiciously around the court of the palace of Archbishop Celestina was arrested, and charged with intent to kill the archbishop. The prisoner gave the name of Antonio Politi. He carried a dagger exactly like the one used by Lucrechi when he killed the Empress of Austria.

Reduced Rates to Detroit, Mich., via C. M. & St. P. R'y.

W. J. CANNON,

U. S. COURT IN HAWAII.

Judge Estee Obligated to Seize a Court Room for His Use.

Honolulu, Aug. 11, via San Francisco, Aug. 20.—United States Judge M. M. Estee has arrived here and opened his court, and one of his first acts was to make an order seizing a courtroom for his own use, the local authorities not having provided him with one.

Judge Estee ordered United States Marshall Ray to take possession of a room which has been the court of Circuit Judge Silliman.

The order from Judge Estee came after a good deal of correspondence had passed between his honor and Superintendent of Public Works McCandless, regarding the finding of quarters for the United States court. The order created much excitement among the legal fraternity. It has raised the point whether the United States or the territory of Hawaii is the owner of the public buildings here. The matter will have to be decided at Washington.

United States Judge Estee is doing quite a large business in naturalizing citizens.

Many old residents of the islands never changed their allegiance from the country of their birth and they are now taking advantage of the opportunity afforded by the United States court.

To Rebuild Ruined Town.

Victoria de las Tunas, Province of Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 20.—Governor General Wood and his party left Porto Padre and arrived at Tunis in the saddle. He made an appropriation here for the reconstruction of schools, charitable institutions and the hospital and roads to Mantu City, which have been in complete ruin since 1897, when they were destroyed by the Cubans. The population was then 5,000. Now it is 800 as a result of the war. The populace showed Governor Wood great gratitude. An officer of the Tenth cavalry has been placed in charge of the reconstruction. The country is absolutely peaceful and the bandits have been wiped out. The heavy cedar and lumber interests in the country will be likely to flourish again after the reconstruction of the roads.

Factory Cuts Girls' Pay.

La Salle, Ill., Aug. 20.—The 150 girls employed at the Western Clockworks in Peru, Ind., just across the line from La Salle, owned by F. W. Matthiesen, the millionaire zinc manufacturer, have suffered a reduction in wages of from 20 to 30 per cent. The capacity of the plant has been doubled, an addition covering a large area of ground having been built in the last three months. The employees of the zinc works owned by Matthiesen & Hegler, who were all on a strike in the smelting plant on account of low wages have returned to work in the last week without gaining any material point in the war they waged against the operators.

Frank Rockefeller Is Ill.

Wichita, Kan., Aug. 20.—Frank Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate's brother, is ill at his stock ranch in western Kansas and is not able to leave his bed. He was taken ill while en route from New York the first part of the week and at Kansas City was forced to delay his journey one day before leaving for the rest of his trip. When he arrived at the stock farm near Belvidere he was at once put to bed. His physician says his ailment is malarial fever.

Editor Is Hanged in Effigy.

Sandusky, O., Aug. 20.—I. F. Mack, editor of a local paper, was hanged in effigy here as a result of the position taken by his paper in supporting the reform movement. Saloons are to close tomorrow and with the assistance of the mayor the police will stop all labor close all stores, stop street cars and milk wagons. Much feeling is resulting from the matter and extremes are being resorted to.

Quarrel Ends in Slaying.

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 20.—Joseph Richter, a retired brass founder, shot and killed George Uchtmann, grocer. The two men had a quarrel Saturday and have quarreled since. As Uchtmann was passing Richter's house he shouted an offensive message to Richter's son, which the elder Richter heard. He appeared on the veranda with a revolver and deliberately shot Uchtmann dead. He was arrested.

Arrested for Embezzling.

Lima, O., Aug. 20.—William F. Smith, employed as superintendent of construction for the American Conduit company, which is laying a conduit system in this city for the Lima telephone company, was arrested on a charge of embezzling $200. Smith waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $500.

Elders Spend Day in Jail.

Mansfield, O., Aug. 20.—Evangelist W. E. Moody of Chicago and Elder S. A. Walton of Oak Park, Ill., representatives of Dowle's Church of Zion, spent their day here in the city jail. On their arrival at 6:35 o'clock to conduct the local services they were met by officers, who escorted them to the lockup, where they were detained until time for the 2 o'clock train for Chicago. The elders said: "We don't know what the outcome will be, but Dr. Dowle will continue sending elders here." The Zion church members held services this morning at the home of E. H. Leiby. They continued unmolested, but no elders were present.

Two Men Kidnap a Child.

Rock Island, Ill., Aug. 20.—Ella Marie, the 2-year-old daughter of Mrs. W. H. Bielefeldt, was kidnaped by two men, who seized the child while it was sitting alone on the porch of its mother's home. The men drove up in a buggy, both wearing false beards. One held the horse while the other secured the child. Mrs. Bielefeldt recognized one of the men as her husband, but before she reached the porch the men were gone with her daughter. Mrs. Bielefeldt and her husband have not been living together since July 6. They formerly lived at Durant, Ia. The police have no trace of either the kidnapers or the child.

Big Ax Plant Is Burned.

Alexandria, Ind., Aug. 20.—Fire broke out in the grinding department of Kelly's Ax Manufacturing company's plant and totally destroyed it in two hours. A strong wind was blowing at the time and the flames soon burned the pumphouse, destroying all chances of saving the plant. The entire plant covered ten acres of ground just outside the city limits, and was valued at nearly $1,000,000. It was fully insured. It was the largest and best equipped plant of its kind in the world, having a daily output of 8,000 axes and employing 750 men.

Return of Missionary's Family.

Kokomo, Ind., Aug. 20.—Mrs. Pyke and four children of this city reached home from Tientsin, China, her husband, a Methodist missionary, remaining. All the women and children were sent away July 5 in a score of small boats, and were compelled to exchange boats nine times to escape. Mrs. Pyke said the Americans took refuge in Gordon ball, which was riddled with shells. She saw dead bodies piled up in the streets, and bullets were picked up by the handful. No Americans were killed.

Wooden Telephone Bells.

In Germany the use of wooden bells for telephones is being adopted, owing to the disagreeable sound of metal telephone bells, particularly when there are a number of them in the same room.—Philadelphia Record.

Senatorial Convention.

At a regularly called meeting of the Republican Committee of the Twenty-second Senatorial district of the State of Wisconsin, July 20, 1900, at Fort Atkinson, all the members of said committee were present. It was resolved that a Republican convention for the said district be held at Milton Junction, Rock county, Wis., on the 5th day of September, 1900, at 1 o'clock p.m., at P. of H. hall, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for senator, to be voted for at the next general election, to be held on the 6th day of November, 1900. ## Wisconsin Weather Forecast

Generally fair; continued warm.

Senator John M. Whitehead should receive a compliment tomorrow evening in the shape of a heavy caucus vote. There is no opposition to him, but that fact makes no difference. Every lover of good government should take pride in casting a ballot for Senator Whitehead. He has not only served his district well, but he has brought great credit to Rock county republicans. The splendid showing made in the gubernatorial canvass, demonstrates that the people of Wisconsin consider the Janesville senator one of their biggest and best men. Show your appreciation of these facts at tomorrow night's caucuses.

Darlington Republican Journal—While The Republican Journal favored Senator Whitehead as long as he was a candidate, and did all in its power, in an honorable way to effect his nomination we can assure our readers and the republicans generally, that we accept the result cheerfully, that there are no sore spots on us, and that from now until election night we propose to stand shoulder to shoulder with all other good republicans, and assist in giving Mr. La Follette the largest majority ever recorded for a candidate in Wisconsin.

Mr. Cornelius Buckley of Beloit, is in the city on legal business and incidentally conferring with the local democrats on campaign projects.—News item.

That is a most graceful way of expressing it. To "confer", according to Webster, is "to consult, to advise, to bestow, etc." Boss Buckley is wise. The smooth campaign manager, these days, always "confers," and his henchmen, in consequence, get their orders as they get the contents of a sugar coated pill—without knowing it.

Caleb Powers, secretary of state under Gov. Taylor, of Kentucky, was convicted of complicity in the Goebel murder, and sentenced to life imprisonment. Perhaps this verdict is a just one, but many people will question it. There was too much politics in the issue and there is a strong suspicion that Kentucky's democratic justice has one eye open for campaign purposes.

The republican caucuses to elect delegates to the Senatorial and Assembly caucuses will be held tomorrow evening from 7 to 8 o'clock. The attendance should be large, as this is certainly a republican year. Don't neglect to attend. It will only take a few moments of your time.

With a primary election law on the books, caucuses will be a thing of the past. It is likely, therefore, that tomorrow evening's caucuses will be the last republican gatherings of the kind held in Janesville.

Some time in the dim and distant future, mayhap, some visiting golf team will defeat the local players, but appearances are certainly "agin th' proposition."

An Evanston man was fined $950 for running a blind pig. Such treatment certainly ought to open the eyes.

The International Typographical Union is a little late in boycotting Mr.

Bryan's books. The popular verdict was returned some time ago.

The new tobacco crop is now being harvested, but not as rapidly as the old one is going up in smoke.

The odds on McKinley's election are 10 to 4 now, and will soon be 16 to 1.

The pig iron trust proposes to hog the market.

The Chinese have been ironed out.

NEW RATE RULING MAKES VETERANS HOT

May Effect the Attendance to the National G. A. R. Encampment at Chicago Next Week.

The attendance to the G. A. R. Encampment at Chicago next week is liable to be greatly diminished on account of a ruling just made by the railroad companies in regard to the fare to be charged.

Early in the spring it was decided by the railroad companies running into Chicago, to grant a rate of one fare for the round trip, to all visiting G. A. R. and arrangements were made by all the different posts to attend in a body.

The Janesville post had made arrangements to take sixty members and a drum corps. The Beloit Post and the Evansville post had also made arrangements to send large delegations. This seems to be all off on account of a recent ruling made by the railroads that a rate of a fare and a third would be charged all posts within one hundred miles of Chicago.

The local members of the G. A. R. are up in arms against what they consider an unjust discrimination and declare that they will not be imposed on in any such manner.

The local post instead of attending in a body sixty strong with a drum corps will probably not send over fifteen. The same will also apply to the other posts that are less than one hundred miles distant from Chicago.

They claim railroads will not only lose by this unjust ruling more than the extra one-third fare amounts to, but they will lose a large number of friends among the business men of the country that are members of the G. A. R.

INCREASED PROFITS

Startled the Merchant Until the Bookkeeper's Mistake Was Found.

In these days of watered stocks and mystifying corporation statements, the adage that figures cannot lie has become popularly discredited, says the New York Mail and Express. But it is doubtful whether any modern promoter has hit upon a simpler scheme to swell the assets on his balance sheet than that which was employed by a humble bookkeeper of this city while the century was still young. The year 1801 had been a very prosperous one for the merchants of New York, and all looked forward with interest to the first month of the new year, when they would be able to ascertain how much better off they were than at the same time twelve months before. Notwithstanding his high expectations, it was with a feeling of grateful surprise that the frugal Scotch bachelor, John Macintosh, received the news from his bookkeeper that he was $2,000 richer by the transactions of the year. That was a large sum in those days, and Macintosh thought the increase in his income warranted a change in his mode of living. Accordingly he engaged more commodious lodgings and invested in many long desired luxuries. Still he could not make out how he had succeeded in accumulating such a large surplus. He ran over the figures again and again to convince himself that they must be right, and every time checked his bookkeeper's totals. Yet the doubt haunted him with a persistency as truly Scotch as himself. He was about to retire one night in early March, when he took out the balance sheet, which he kept handy, and once more endeavored to convince himself of his good fortune. Without waiting to put on his hat, with balance sheet in hand, he hurried to the lodgings of his bookkeeper. In those days all the good folk of the town retired at the stroke of nine. But Macintosh's pounding succeeded in awakening the blissfully unconscious clerk, who threw up the window and demanded: "Who's there?" "Who's here, you dunderskul," exclaimed the irate merchant. "Do ye ken what ye're doone? Ye've added the year of our Laird to the credits."

Cool and Methodical.

A lawyer who worthily bears a distinguished name occupies an old-fashioned mansion on the edge of New York. His sister, who lives with him, tells a laughable story, which is reported in Harper's Round Table, illustrating his coolness and love of method. Recently his sister tiptoed into his room some time after midnight, and told him she thought burglars were in the house. The lawyer put on his dressing-gown, and went downstairs. In the back hall he found a rough-looking man trying to open a door that led into the back yard. The burglar had unlocked the door, and was pulling at it with all his might. The lawyer, seeing the robber's predicament, called to him: "It does not open that way, you idiot! It slides back!"

Marine, Field and Night Glasses.

Marine glasses are also termed night glasses when they have a large diameter object glass, which is used at full area at night and reduced area by day, by placing a diaphragm cap over the object glass. A field glass may be a terrestrial telescope of the same combination of lenses, with a very short focus, or a pair mounted for each eye. For the lower powers for field glasses, the opera glass form is used, only made longer than an opera glass, the object glass and the eye lens being achromatic.

HIS DEAD BODY WAS FOUND IN THE RIVER

MR. JOHN SHERIDAN BETTER KNOWN AS "YANKEE PAT"

Was About Town On Saturday Night Under the Influence of Liquor and Must Have Stumbled Into the Water—Remains Discovered at the Foot of Dodge Street Last Evening.

The dead body of John Sheridan, better known as "Yankee Pat," a farmer residing in the town of La Prairie, was taken from the river in the rear of Norcross & Doty's mill at the foot of Dodge street last night about 6:30 o'clock. Joseph Blow and his wife were coming up the river in a boat about 6:30 o'clock and noticed something in the water and on closer examination they saw it was the body of a man. They immediately went ashore and Blow went up to the West-side fire station and gave the alarm. Dr. Joe Whiting and Peter Chapman went down to the river, took the boat and rowed out to where the body was. Dr. Whiting looked at it to make sure it was a man and not a dummy someone had thrown in the river and went back to shore and called Sheriff Appleby.

The Body Hauled Ashore
On the arrival of the sheriff, a rake was procured and the body hauled ashore and taken to Kimball's undertaking rooms. Dr. Whiting made an examination of the body and decided that drowning was the cause of his death and that he had been in the water a number of hours.

It is not known definitely how long Sheridan had been in the river or how he came to fall in. He was a man much addicted to the use of liquor and it is supposed he wandered down to the foot of Dodge street and not knowing where he was going, fell into the river and floundered out some distance before he finally fell down, not being able to rise laid there and drowned.

The river bank at the foot of Dodge street is very steep and any one stepping off at that point in the dark would go some distance into the river before they could stop.

The body was lying about forty feet from shore, face downwards in about a foot and a half of water. The river is very shallow at that place and had he been able to stand up he could easily have walked back to shore.

Visited the Saloons
Sheridan left home Saturday morning about 11 o'clock for town. After getting here he was around the streets all the afternoon and evening and visited a number of saloons getting pretty well filled up with whiskey.

In the evening he took his horse and started for home and was found about 9 o'clock at night by John Lawler, driving around down by the Water Works pumping station. Mr. Lawler, took him up on Jackson street and started him towards home. About 9:30 o'clock he came driving up River street and hitched his horse in front of W. T. Vankirk's grocery store, and again started out to visit the neighboring saloons.

John Freeman, the bar tender for E. J. Linnierhiet, said he was there between 9:30 and 10 o'clock and walked out the back door onto Dodge street. At Leopold Koester's place, across the street from Linnierhiet's, he came in the back door and wanted a drink, which the bar tender refused, saying he had too much aboard already. He walked out the back door and that was the last they saw of him.

No one seems to remember seeing him much after 10 o'clock, although one of the night force of the Recorder said he was around about 1 o'clock.

His horse was hitched in front of Vankirk's grocery Saturday night about 1:30 o'clock and stood there until Sunday morning about 10 o'clock, when Mr. Vankirk noticing his condition had him taken to the Riverside Hotel and ordered him fed and taken care of.

Sheridan, evidently did not come back to his buggy after tying it in front of Vankirk's store as the horse was seen there by different parties between the hours of 9:30 at night and 2 o'clock in the morning and also at 6:30 Sunday morning.

Sheridan Was a Character
Sheridan was a character around this part of the country for many years and was familiarly known as "Yankee Pat." He was a hard drinker and never came to town without getting intoxicated, keeping the police continually on the lookout that he did not stay out and freeze during the cold weather or wander into some place where he could not get out.

He always went into Koester's saloon by the rear door and left the same way and probably Saturday night when he went out after the bartender refused him a drink he went towards the river, instead of going towards River street, and before he realized where he was he had fallen down the steep bank into the river, and in his muddled condition stumbled around until he fell down and drowned in the shallow water.

Sheridan was 66 years old and has lived in this county for a great many years. He had no children and leaves surviving him a wife Bridget Sheridan, to mourn his death.

The funeral will be held at 5:30 o'clock today from Kimball's undertaking rooms. The interment will be at Mt. Olivet cemetery.

VICIOUS BRONCHO RAISES HAVOC

RUNAWAY SATURDAY CAUSED FOUR WRECKS ON MAIN ST.

Mad Race of an Animal Belonging to John Lyke a Town of Harmony Farmer—Several People Were Injured in the Stampede on the Streets.

A vicious broncho belonging to John Lyke, a farmer residing in the town of Harmony, came very near making a clean sweep of the buggies on North Main street about 7:30 o'clock Saturday night. The street was filled with buggies and before he was caught he succeeded in making wrecks of four outfits and hurting several people.

Mr. Lyke and two companions were driving down Milwaukee street in an open buggy. The broncho commenced acting badly and Mr. Lyke turned north onto North Main street. Just after turning the corner Mr. Lyke struck the broncho with the whip and the trouble commenced. Mr. Lyke's two companions lost no time in getting out of the buggy and Lyke soon followed.

The broncho left to its own free will lost no time in seeing how much damage he could do. Mrs. E. H. Murdock and Miss Maud Young, were out riding with Mr. Murdock's spirited horse and stopped in front of R. H. Pickering & Co's. grocery store. They heard the noise made by the crack of the whip and the plunging horse and looked around to see him coming directly for them.

She Started To Jump

Miss Young, started to jump out and fell to the sidewalk and before Mrs. Murdock could get out of the buggy the broncho crashed into her rig and she was thrown into the gutter. Murdock's horse started to run, the wheel of the buggy passing over Mrs. Murdock, who was unable to get out of the way.

Mrs. Murdock's horse ran up Main street striking a telephone pole in its light and turned up the hill near Pease's Court where it was caught by Henry Rogers at the top of the hill and tied in front of his home.

When Lyke's rig struck Murdock's the two started forward and collided with a top buggy belonging to Mr. Wright of the town of Harmony who was in Pickering's doing some trading. His horse broke loose and joined the general rush up the street but was caught at Fourth avenue and stopped.

The broncho continued to run up Main street and collided with a top buggy driven by a Mr. Morrissey, looking wheels with it. Morrissey's horses started and the two continued on to Prospect avenue, where they collided with a telephone pole and tore the rigs apart. Lyke's going on Main street and Morrissey's up Prospect avenue. J. P. Wright, who lives on the corner where the split occurred, jumped over his fence and caught Morrissey's horse and stopped it.

The Broncho Freed Himself

The broncho freed himself from the buggy near Wright's residence and ran on up Main street, under the arch and on into the gas pond where it waded around in the mud and coming out started back for town. By this time he was rather tired and was caught by Michael Holloran. That no one was killed or seriously injured is a wonder.

Mrs. Murdock was badly bruised but no bones were broken although she will be laid up for several days. Miss Young struck on her head when trying to get out of the buggy and escaped with a severe headache. She lost her glasses when she fell but they were afterwards found, although the gold chain to which they were attached could not be found.

All four of the rigs were quite badly broken. Mr. Morrissey's sustaining the greatest damage, the top being split and broken, the shafts and wheels splintered and the harness broken in several places. The others were not so badly damaged but that they could be used. Many eye witnesses to the affair claim the whole trouble was caused by Lyke whipping the broncho.

LIVERY HORSE

BROKE ITS LEG

John J. Sheridan, the West Milwaukee street liveryman lost a horse last night in a peculiar manner. Sheridan rented out the horse to a young man who drove him down to a house opposite the street railway power house on Eastern avenue, where he had him hitched to a post and went into a house.

The horse had been standing there but a short time when the engineer at the power house saw him raise up on his hind legs and then fall to the ground. He immediately started for the horse and the young man that had hired it came running out of the house. When they reached the horse they found he was unable to rise. They unhitched the horse from the buggy and sent for Dr. Roberts.

When the doctor arrived he found the horse had broken his left fore leg at the shoulder and nothing could be done. The horse was killed to put it out of its misery.

It is supposed that when the horse raised up, it got its leg over the strap, which caused it to fall to the ground, striking on its shoulder and breaking it. It was a peculiar accident and an unfortunate one for Mr. Sheridan.

FAMILY THOUGHT THE END HAD COME

CURIOUS FREAK OF LIGHTNING IN FIRST WARD.

Home of Albert Cole Penetrated By a Bolt on Sunday Morning and Considerable Damage Was Done—The Inmates Had a Narrow Escape From Death.

Albert Cole and family who live in one of R. J. Mole's houses just off from Washington street in the First ward, had a narrow escape from being killed by lightning Sunday morning.

During the severe storm which raged between three and four o'clock a bolt of lightning struck the house and for a moment the family thought the end had come. The lightning struck the brick chimney in the center of the house, wrecking it completely and throwing the bricks all over the yard.

The bolt then followed down the chimney and in a room on the second floor where Mr. Cole's daughter was sleeping it tore up the floor, splintering the boards and shattered two of the legs of the bed in which the girl was sleeping. She was not stunned by the shock but was terribly frightened and jumped out of bed and ran down stairs where her parents were. She told her mother she had to step over balls of fire when she ran out of the rooms.

The lightning continued down to the base of the chimney on the front floor and seemed to divide and go in two directions. In one place it went through the floor shattering several of the floor joists and made a number of holes in the floor that looked like a person had shot a large bore rifle through it.

Another bolt went across the room to a sewing machine that stood in one corner and struck one of the legs of the machine crumbling it up as if it were made out of clay. It also shattered the glass in the front door and in one of the windows, finally going out through the base of the house ripping off a section of the base board.

A moment before the lightning struck the house Mr. Cole had been to the widow that was smashed to close it. His wife became frightened at the continuous lightning and told him to come away from the window. He had hardly left the window when the crash came which tore the window out.

That no one was killed by the lightning seems wonderful as the house was filled with it.

KIDNAPS AN 11-YEAR-OLD GIRL

Milton Miss Is Thought to Have Been Brought to Beloit

Milton is very much stirred up over the kidnapping of an eleven year old girl which occurred Saturday.

Marshal Appleby received a message from William Ind Saturday morning reading as follows:

"Girl kidnapped from here today. Is eleven years old, dark brown hair. Reported to have been taken to L. H. Hood of Beloit. Is with woman about fifty years old, named Wilmarth. Hold all concerned if caught."

The police have been unable to locate them in the city. No such man as L. H. Hood is known to live here, although one by that name was employed by the City Electric company some time ago. The marshal is inclined to believe that they went to some town other than Beloit.—Beloit Free Press.

CONGRESS IN DANGER

ITS POSSIBLE LOSS BECAUSE OF OVER-CONFIDENCE.

Republican Gravely Impressed With the Importance of Retaining Control of the Legislative Branch of the Government.

WASHINGTON, AUG. 6.—Within the past few days, during a visit to the Republican congressional headquarters here, Chairman Babcock of the committee said some things in regard to the probable results of the presidential and congressional campaigns which should have the attention of every American citizen who desires to witness the triumph of the party of protection, sound money and prosperity in the fall elections. The point was noted by this campaign manager that in some of the safely Republican states where there is no doubt of the electors favorable to McKinley and Roosevelt being chosen at the November elections there is danger of such indifference and apathy among the friends of these principles which are so dear to patriotic Americans that there may be heavy losses of votes to the Republican candidates for the house of representatives.

This is a matter which engages the thoughtful attention of all who are interested in a sweeping victory in November. The Republican campaign managers are hoping to make some substantial gains in New York and Pennsylvania of seats in the house which were lost in the off year of 1898. There is little prospect of the Republicans being able to more than hold their own in the middle states of the west, as the Republican membership of the house from those states is now very large. Some gains may be made in the far west, but the best hope for the party retaining control of the popular branch of congress is in the larger states of the east.

The Republican leaders call attention to the fact that too much indifference is manifested by the friends of protection, sound money and prosperity in the situation in the safely Republican states. Many are inclined to regard the battle for the presidency as already won, and they do not count the danger of the loss of the house of representatives or even the senate. Some of the enthusiastic sound money advocates, who were delighted with the action of the last congress in passing the gold standard law, regard the presidential contest with indifference, believing that even the election of Mr. Bryan would not shake the present secure and sound financial policy of the government. There will be a rude awakening from this dream of security if the sound money men will reflect upon the fact that the election of Mr. Bryan would be certain to carry with it the house of representatives and doubtless effect sufficient changes in the state legislatures by which United States senators are to be chosen during the coming winter to give the United States senate to the opponents of the present sound money policy of the nation.

When the people of the country have scanned carefully the details of the foreign trade of the United States during the past year, they will hear with little patience any more of the stuff which was dealt out by the spokesmen of the Democratic convention at Kansas City about "the policy of protection being damaging to the interests of the United States because it curtails our foreign trade." The past year's foreign trade has been under the Dingley tariff act, and the fact that we have sent abroad more goods than we have purchased abroad is a tribute to the genius and industry of the American manufacturers and artisans. The world is today buying more commodities of American production than ever before in the history of the nation and more in proportion to those furnished by other nations. The increase in our export trade of manufactured commodities is proportionately tenfold greater than that of Great Britain, our chief competitor in the markets of the world. This comes of the enlightened policy of protection to our industries which has given growth and stability to the domestic manufacturing institutions and enabled them to capture markets in competition with England, France and Germany and at the same time maintain our high standard of wages.

They Won't Scare.

The Democratic managers have rigged up an emperor scarecrow, but it will not stampede the American voters.

ALMOST BEYOND BELIEF.

Democrats Incite Filipinos to Continue Insurrection.

In the Philippines, territory which the treaty of Paris brought under the sovereignty of the United States, American soldiers are engaged in putting down rebellion against the flag. They are in daily peril of their lives in the performance of an unavoidable duty. Yet only the other day one of the most conspicuous of Democratic orators, George Fred Williams of Massachusetts, denounced at a Democratic meeting in Buffalo the operations of our soldiers in the east as "murderous." If Mr. Williams holds these views in this hemisphere, it is fair to assume that if he were in Luzon he would join Aguinaldo to carry a gun against the men he calls murderers.

In the Chicago Tribune of last Sunday there is a statement that on the Friday previous, speaking in the Sixth Indiana congressional district, Mr. Williams said frankly that the Filipinos were "fighting now in the hope that the Democrats would be successful in November." We find no report of this remarkable utterance in the Indianapolis papers.

"I would to God," wrote the late General Lawton shortly before his death, "that the truth of this whole Filipino situation could be known by every one in America as I know it. If I am shot by a Filipino bullet, it might as well come from one of my own men, because I know from observation, confirmed by captured prisoners, that the continuance of fighting is chiefly due to reports that are sent out from America."

How inexpressibly horrid is this continued Democratic incitement of Aguinaldo's men to continue their savage insurrection! If Governor Roosevelt's speech at St. Paul against the Kansas City party had been a thousand times more bitter than it was, it would not have done justice to the case.—New York Sun.

PLATFORM OF GOOD TIMES.

Republican Policy Means Money in the Country's Pockets.

The Manufacturers' Record recommends this platform to the south:

Resolved, That the south favors the policies that will encourage and protect investments within its borders, will raise more chimney stacks of mills and furnaces, will strengthen and extend railroad systems, will open more mines, will widen the markets for agricultural and manufactured products and will increase the means and opportunities for placing these products in the markets.

Republican policies are that kind of politics. The success of the Republican party in the elections of 1900 will mean continuing security, confidence and opportunity to thrift and business enterprise, the development and expansion of trade, good work and wage in every occupation. The success of the Democratic party would bring insecurity of values, panic, depression of business activity and the substitution of bad times for good.

The Republican policy means money in the pocket of the country. The Democratic policy means that the country will be out of pocket.

The platform of The Manufacturers' Record is not for the south alone, but for all the United States.—New York Sun.

Their Share.

There are 2,000 more men in Chicago to whose votes Mr. Bryan can lay no further claim. They are the employees of the Union Traction company, who will receive an increase of wages amounting to $100,000 a year. It will be remembered that Mr. Bryan said not long ago that he was willing that the Republicans should have the votes of all men who had received their share of prosperity.—Albany Journal.

False Logic.

Those persons who argue that the election of Mr. Bryan would do no harm because the gold standard is an accomplished fact utilize the same species of logic as those who believe in the existence of the pardoning power immediately after the conviction.

Imperialism Described.

President McKinley describes Republican imperialism as follows: "To the party of Lincoln has come another supreme opportunity which it has bravely met in the liberation of 10,000,000 of the human family from the yoke of imperialism."

The Matter of Pig Iron.

CATARRH

Catarrh has become such a common disease that a person entirely free from this disgusting complaint is seldom met with. It is customary to speak of Catarrh as nothing more serious than a bad cold, a simple inflammation of the nose and throat. It is, in fact, a complicated and very dangerous disease; if not at first, it very soon becomes so.

The blood is quickly contaminated by the foul secretions, and the poison through the general circulation is carried to all parts of the system.

Salves, washes and sprays are unsatisfactory and disappointing, because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. does. It cleanses the blood of the poison and eliminates from the system all catarrhal secretions, and thus cures thoroughly and permanently the worst cases.

Mr. P. H. McAllister, of Harrodsburg, Ky., writes: "Having been a terrible sufferer from Catarrh, and being now sound and well, the question often put to me is 'What cured you?' In answer I feel it my duty to state that Swift's Specific is the medicine. I am such a true believer in the efficacy of Swift's Specific that I can honestly and conscientiously recommend it to any one suffering from Catarrh. Have recommended it to many, and am happy to say that those whom I have induced to use it can bear me out in the statement that we cure any case of Catarrh if taken according to directions."

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the greatest of all blood medicines and tonics.

If you have Catarrh don't wait until it becomes deep-seated and chronic, but begin at once the use of S. S. S., and send for our book on blood and skin diseases and write our physicians about your case.

CUBAN SENORITAS LEARNING TO BE SCHOOLTEACHERS.

Story of a Wedding Dress—Battle With the Tan—When the Heart Is Heavy—Work For Leisure Hands. Chinese Versus American Dress.

There are 700 Cuban senioritas at Harvard college struggling with the English language and absorbing American educational fads. The young ladies are very enthusiastic and eager to learn all they can.

As they stroll about under the elm trees they make pretty pictures, with their dark eyes and flashing teeth. But beneath the sunny exterior of most of them are hidden sorrows. The sight of a senora in widow's weeds tells without words the story of a home ruined by the war. Dark eyed senioritas whisper of sweethearts who went to fight their oppressors and never returned.

Most of these Cuban women and girls are of good families whom the war despoiled of their wealth and estates. The only alternative left them was to teach. Some of the girls attending the college are as young as 14, but have the mature appearance of tropical races. A fact much commented upon is the superior refinement of the women teachers as compared to the men, but one of the senioritas explained this by the fact that the best young men of her country were killed during the war, while the flower of the women remained.

A CUBAN SCHOOLMA'AM.

The senioritas are refreshingly sweet and guileless. They are enchanted with everything and everybody and are themselves creating a very favorable impression. But they indulge in one propensity which the Cambridge housewives, their hostesses pro tem, consider bad form. They like to stroll bareheaded on the bridges after evening has set in. Nearly all of the senioritas wear buttons bearing their name and address, so if they wander too far and lose their way some kind person may lead them back to their temporary abode.

Among the distinguished Cuban women at Harvard is the widow of the late General Hevia. She is said to be a beauty and dresses in perfect taste.

The fairest of all the senioritas is a tiny sprite, Amelia Siero, a blond with dark eyes, who has a very devoted admirer in the person of an American officer who made her acquaintance during the war and has called on her every day since her arrival at Harvard. Then there is the poetess of Cuba, as she is called, the Senorita de Leon, whose works have been translated into English. She was educated abroad and speaks English and French fluently.

Senorita Clara Garaballo was the teacher chosen to carry the Cuban flag in the procession after their arrival. Her father was a wealthy lawyer and planter. One of his sons was killed in the war and the other disabled for life.

Story of a Wedding Dress.

A rather interesting story is being told in regard to a wedding that will occur in the near future. The bride to be, wishing to have a wedding dress different from the conventional white satin, determined to be married in a gown which a relative had secured during a trip to India. The dress was the finest muslin and was beautifully embroidered and of a texture that was practically impossible to duplicate now. In having the gown made up it was found that there was not material enough to make the sleeves of the high necked bodice. Various stores in Boston were visited, but without success. Nowhere could be found material that came anywhere near duplicating the material of which the dress was made. Then it was that the interesting part of this story came to light. The dress was taken to a well known cleaning establishment, and after it had been put through the usual process the owner happened to tell one of the young women employees of her predicament in not being able to secure any material suitable for the sleeves. The employee told her customer that she believed she could help her out of her difficulty.

It seems that about 100 years ago a Beacon street belle of that period was preparing her wedding trousseau, the wedding gown of which was of a peculiar Indian muslin. For some reason or other this intended wedding did not take place, and the gown was given to the maid of the young woman who had believed she would be married in it. This maid was the godmother of the mother of the employee referred to above, and the gown in question had finally come into the possession of the latter. The two gowns were placed side by side, and, while not exactly alike, the difference was so slight that it would not be noticeable, and after some diplomacy on the part of the would be purchaser she secured possession of enough material to complete the making of her gown, and departed in the most happy frame of mind.

So the gown, or a portion of it, intended to take part in the wedding of a Beacon street belle of a hundred years ago will be used soon in another Boston wedding.—Boston Transcript.

Battle With the Tan.

The athletic girl who wishes to be fair can do much to improve her appearance by submitting her face and neck to a thorough scrubbing night and morning. She must scrub hard and vigorously even though it hurts. She must use a camel's hair face brush and plenty of pure soap and water.

Here are simple directions which she should follow every night while she is a gay, athletic summer girl.

Just before retiring she should take her scrubbing brush, rub it well with soap, dip it in hot water, and then literally scrub her face and throat with it. She should use the best and purest soap, and after her face has been thoroughly scrubbed it should be rinsed in hot water and dried with a soft towel. Then a cream should be gently rubbed into the skin and allowed to remain overnight.

In the morning the cream should be washed off with hot water and a little soap, and then the face rinsed off and dashed with cold water. Do not be afraid of the cold water, but splash it on till the skin becomes firm and glowing.

If the brown persists in remaining, and the summer girl finds that she is really getting darker, she had best wash her face night and morning with the following lotion, which is a successful whitener: Chlorate of potassa, one-half ounce; distilled water, eight ounces; rosewater, four ounces, and glycerin, one ounce. Dissolve and use freely.

The enthusiastic girl who comes in from an all day's sail with her face the color of a lobster will find great relief by using ice cold applications. Nothing will more quickly relieve the sting of sunburn or prevent the color remaining.

The linen cloths should be soft and dipped in ice cold water. After a good many cloths have been applied to the face it should be thoroughly rubbed with cream. A preparation of cold cream of cucumber and orange flowers is particularly good for this purpose. Not only does the cream soften and heal the burned skin, but the orange flowers impart to it a delicate and refreshing odor.—Philadelphia Press.

When the Heart Is Heavy.

Worry kills. It wears upon the brain as dropping water wears away stone. The habit must be killed by eternal vigilance, resolution and good sense. Worry, like bad air or an obnoxious person, must be driven out, and the best way to drive either out is by the introduction of the good. You can fill your mind with comforting, calming thoughts, leaving no room for the harassing ones. You can flood out the enemy, just as by pouring a stream of clear water into a tumbler filled with discolored liquid you can soon force out the muddy contents of the glass and leave it filled with liquid crystal. Don't let events depress you. Maintain your equilibrium and let mind rule matter and good sense judge events.

The emotional nature is always watching for a chance to exploit itself. Keep it in reserve, ready for every touch of human feeling, responsive to goodness, honor, cheerfulness and all healthy feeling, but do not allow it to tinge your understanding or in any way affect your sane view of business or the affairs of life. Check expression when bitter or somber feeling has the best of you. To say how sad or perplexed you feel when your heart sinks for the moment deepens your inward troubles and at the same time spreads it to outside people. You would not spread disease; do not spread mental distress. Your desponding words, bursting impulsively from a full heart in the presence of a friend, add to the burdens of another human being—one, perhaps, already weighed down by cares and anxieties. To so speak is to allow yourself to be overcome by "things" ruled by the natural course of the world. You cannot rule the world, it is true, but you have the power to rule four parts of it—that is, yourself. Don't hate and don't worry. This is the advice given by a hale and beneficent old man to those who asked him for the secret of length of days. He might have added, don't get angry.—Ada C. Sweet in Woman's Home Companion.

Work For Leisure Hands.

Something comparatively new in the way of summer catch up work is crocheted silk lace for the edging of silk underwear. It is executed with a fine steel hook and colored knitting silk, not too coarse, and the patterns closely resemble the linen torchon edgings. Any one who is skilled in crochet work can devise her own patterns, or a simple mesh of torchon lace may be used as a guide.

The newest corset covers, cut in the French mode, with plaid backs and gathered fronts, are made of India or china silk, in blue, pink, violet and cream, and are finished about the neck and armholes with this crocheted edging, an inch or less in width. Sometimes it takes the form of a simple scallop, and, again, this is mounted on a "ladder" strip, through which narrow wash ribbon of the same shade is run, to be tied in full bows on the shoulders and in front. These French corset covers do not extend below the waist line, but are finished with a belt of the silk. Petticoats, drawers and chemises, when made of silk, are trimmed with the same silk lace in edging and insertion. This work affords the simplest and pleasantest form of occupation for idle moments on summer days.

Other useful forms of crochet work are dollies for finger bowls, plates and
